MALAYSIAN ASSOCIATION OF RISK AND INSURANCE MANAGEMENT

8.00am	Registration with breakfast
9.00am	Welcome Address by MARIM Chairman, YB Datuk Ir. Lim Tong Kang
9.30am	Conference Opening by Puan Jessica Chew, Deputy Governor of Bank Negara Malaysia
10.30am	Networking Break Visit Exhibition Booths
11.00am	Risk Mitigation: Lessons from Grenfell Tower and EPF Building Fires by Nanthakumaran Marimuthu, Operations Vice President, Group Manager Account Engineering (Asia Operations), FM Global The disaster at Grenfell Tower in west London in June 2017 is the worst tower block fire the UK has witnessed, costing 71 lives and hundreds homeless. The landmark 58-year-old EPF building, overlooking the Federal Highway, caught fire in Feb., causing thick smoke to be visible from its upper floors. What key risk mitigations could we learn from these incidents?
12.00nn	Panel Session 1: Innovative Risk Management: Perspective from the Boardroom Boards are increasingly calling for breakthrough innovation to gain competitive advantage. To avoid innovation activity that does not “move the needle,” CEOs and board members need to focus on taking risks on efforts that would create shareholder value in the long term.
1.00pm	Lunch Visit Exhibition Booths
2.30pm	Parallel Sessions
	Risk Management	Insurance
	Fraud & Corruption Risk Management: Innovate Within Boundaries by Dr. Mark Lovatt, Chief Executive Officer, Trident-Integrity With prosecutors and regulators becoming increasingly active in enforcing anti-corruption legislation, there is greater need for companies to effectively navigate fraud & corruption risk.	What is Cyber Insurance & Should We Get It? by Sheyna Janz, Financial Lines Underwriting Manager and Anish Chandran, Underwriting Executive, AIG Malaysia Insurance Berhad While we do our best to secure our systems & data and cross our fingers that the next massive intrusion will not affect us, the fact is, cybercriminals are getting smarter. Is cyber insurance a plausible answer?
3.15pm	Fostering Innovative Risk Management Through Predictive Risk Analysis by Ananth Nochur, Practice Partner (Int.), Industrial IoT, Terradata A systematic examination of risk exposure can help companies design strategies and implement initiatives to minimize risk, strengthen brand, and stay in step with new, disruptive technologies.	Aon 2018 Terrorism & Political Violence Map – The Asian Perspective by Julian Taylor, Broking Strategist & Head of Crisis Management, Specialty Broking, Aon Asia and Neelay Patel, Executive Vice President AON Risk Solutions Given the current heightened political risks and terrorism exposures, it is essential that businesses understand their exposures and ensure right solutions are in place to mitigate and transfer risk.
4.00pm	Networking Break Visit Exhibition Booths
4.30pm	Sustainability & Risk Management – Why It Matters by Kelvin Wu, Group Senior Manager, Risk Management & Insurance, International SOS Sustainability has climbed to the top of political and business agendas and has become a key consideration for business resilience as well as competitive advantage. Risk managers are uniquely positioned to take this onboard and forward.
5.15pm	End

8.00am	Registration with breakfast
9.00am	Innovative Risk Management for Competitive Sport by Vijash Naidu, Assistant Club Licensing Manager, Football Association of Malaysia Competitive sporting activities are exposed to various safety, integrity and governance risks. Innovative risk management practices are important for effective management of competitive sports for greater governance and assurance of the safety and well-being of stakeholders.
9.30am	Effective Governance and Risk Management: Building Sustainability & Integrity by Siti Rosnah Md Hashim, Director of the Integrity and Risk Management Department, Inland Revenue Board of Malaysia Recognised as the Risk Management Newcomer of the Year 2016 by the Institute of Risk Management (IRM) UK, the Inland Revenue Board of Malaysia will share its success stories and its steep learning curve in integrating risk management into its daily operations in meeting its objectives of creating & implementing a fair & effective tax management system.
10.15am	Balancing Risk and Reward, Science and Art, Process and People by Victoria Tan, Group Head of Risk and Head of Sustainability, Ayala Corporation Ayala Corporation, Philippines's largest corporation in terms of assets, has effectively managed its risks across diversified businesses through innovative risk management.
11.00am	Networking Break Visit Exhibition Booths
11.30am	The Digitisation of Everything: How Organisations Must Adapt by Ryan Sim, Executive Director (Advisory Practice), Ernst & Young Malaysia The challenge for businesses today is to face the implications of digital change. A new kind of consumer as well as supplier and employee means new ways of doing business. How are we to regard digital as an opportunity to be exploited, instead of only as a risk to guard against?
12.30pm	 Gala Lunch Risk Management Team of the Year Award
3.00pm	Panel Session 2: Innovative Risk Transfer Designs Each organisation's risks are unique. Sometimes an innovative solution, not a conventional risk transfer product, that allows the organisation to combine risk transfer and risk retention with a cost/benefit trade-off, is needed. Let's hear viewpoints from a panel of distinguished CEOs and CROs.
4.00pm	Risk Outlook for 2018 - 2019 by Chris W.K. Lee, Chief Executive Officer, RAM Consultancy Services Sdn Bhd Gain insights and innovative solutions from RAM's 25 years' of expertise in credit analysis, risk management, economics and industry research.
